Adams Directors Told How County Can Get Technical School Here In Two Years

The steps by which Adams County might acquire a $750,000 technical high school within two years at a cost of an extra half mill of real estate tax under a 30-year financing program were outlined to Adams County's school directors Thursday evening at their annual convention at the Biglerville High School.

The speaker was Robert T. Stoner, member of the Cumberland County School Board who has been involved in the development of technical and vocational schools for more than 20 years. He said state and federal funds are available toward building and operating costs for technical high schools.

At the same session, the directors heard Lloyd Kaiser, manager of the nine-county educational TV station at Hershey which is expected to go on the air next Monday, tell what educational TV can offer in classroom and adult education.

DIRECTORS GIVE VIEWS

During a business session, the directors adopted a score of resolutions in which they favored legislation to make Bible reading and prayer permissible in the public schools and commended the county board for its preliminary studies on the technical school project for Adams County.

They gave their blessing to educational TV and commended the county commissioners for current efforts toward more realistic property and occupation assessments in the county. They added a recommendation "that the ratio of assessed value to market value be adopted by the county commissioners may more closely approach the average for the Commonwealth."

Later in the meeting there was a reference to the state average of "about 45 per cent." The present Adams County ratio is 25 per cent, fourth lowest in the state.

In another resolution they asked school districts to consider standardizing tax collector commission rates for collectors to be elected next year, looking toward school reorganizational changes due in 1966.

"COUNTY BIG ENOUGH"

Mr. Stoner told the directors: "Adams County has no other move to make but to establish yourselves as an attendance area for an area technical school. The state might turn you down but you could point out that the three neighboring counties already have established attendance areas and you might be able to prepare such a fine program that state approval would be given."

He detailed the steps to be taken to achieve a technical high school and said it would take two years. "Your county is easily big enough for a technical school with 10 trade and industrial shop units and that's the state minimum. You might be big enough to add six or eight more, if you consider your present enrollment and dropouts. You might include agriculture business, cooperative and distributive education and adult classes in the evenings."

He estimated the building would cost $500,000 and its equipment $250,000 but said half of those costs would be met by state and federal aid. "The remainder would come from local taxes and it might mean a half mill increase if the cost is financed over a 30-year period. There is state and federal help on operating costs also," he added. "Your picture is not hopeless at all and you might find it one of the most economical ways to get a new secondary school building."

MANY INTERESTED

Assistant County Superintendent of School George B. Inskip reported on a student interest survey made in all high schools of the county last spring showing 891 in the public schools and 405 in Delone Catholic interested in technical school training. Only the three top classes were surveyed. He said hundreds of parents also recorded an interest in night classes.

The talks were followed by a question period on technical schools led by a panel and then extended to the convention. The panel included Supt. H. Edgar Riegle of the Gettysburg schools; Frank E. Basehoar, Littlestown High School principal; Charles R. Leader, Biglerville industrial arts teacher; Rex Maddox, Mt. Joy Twp. school director, and Robert O. Burkhardt, production manager for the Musselman Division of the Pet Milk Co.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Questions brought out this other information: Technical school teachers must have at least six years of experience in

SCHOOLS ARE BIG BUSINESS IN ADAMS CO.

Statistics given Adams County school directors at their annual convention in Biglerville Thursday by County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson showed it cost $4.7 million to operate the county's public schools in 1962-63.

"That's big business," Supt. Coulson said. "Our schools are one of the biggest businesses in the entire county."

His figures showed that Adams County ranks ninth in the state in total spending per pupil. The Adams County figure for 1962-63 was $504.72 and the state average was $479.71.

TEACHER'S PAY LOWER

The same set of statistics showed this county's average tax rate based on market value of real estate is above the state average but teachers' salaries in the county, based on pupil enrollment, were below the state average.

Here are some of Mr. Coulson's figures: Average market value of real estate per pupil, $12,183; average tax for school purposes in county, 17.9 mills on market value as compared with state average of 15.4 and noted that Pennsylvania ranks 19th in the nation in local effort toward support of schools.

Total state appropriation, 16.5 mills equivalent.

Average real estate tax rate, based on assessed valuation, 48.93 mills, ranking fourth in the state.

4TH FROM LOWEST

With 25 per cent ratio of assessed valuation of real estate to market value, county is fourth from lowest in Pennsylvania. The state average is 45 per cent.

Total tax collected for school purposes, $2,345,201, and total state reimbursement, $2,271,458.

Average cost per pupil for school administration, $23.05 as against state average of $19.09.

Average instructional costs per pupil, $261.42, against state average of $276.38.

DEBT SERVICE HIGH

Paid for teachers' salaries per pupil in county, $211.55, as compared with state average of $228.23 which ranks Adams 40th in state.

Attendance services in county cost 35 cents per pupil as against $1.39 in state.

Police Keep Tight Guard Around Japs Protesting Nuclear Sub In Sasebo

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
SASEBO, Japan (AP) — Some 2,000 determined Japanese leftist students today kept alive the demonstration protesting the U.S. nuclear submarine Seadragon's visit to Japan, but they didn't interfere with the submarine's holidaying sailors.

About 100 Zengakuren students, whose federation spearheaded the bloody 1960 demonstrations against the U.S.-Japan security treaty, sat down in front of the U.S. Navy base where the Seadragon is tied up. A column of Socialists and labor unionists marched around a circular intersection 100 yards from the base's main gate.

KEEPS TIGHT GUARD

Japanese police kept up a tight guard and confined the demonstrators to the main road in front of the base.

COURT TO HEAR CASE TO SETTLE DEATH ACTION

The Adams County court this morning set November 21 at 11 a.m. as the time for a hearing on a proposed settlement, for $1,544.64, of a trespass action brought by Thomas E. Brines, Emmitsburg R. 2, against David Anthony Lingg, Emmitsburg R. 1.

The suit stems from the death last Memorial Day of the 14-year-old son of Mr. Brines who was struck by a car operated by Lingg on the old Emmitsburg Rd. near the Maryland line.

Both the action in trespass brought by Mr. Brines as administrator of the estate of his son, Stuart David Brines, against Lingg, and the petition for a compromise of the action were filed by the law firm of Bigham and Raffensperger.

SEEK EARLY DATE

The court was asked this morning to set an early date for the hearing because of scheduled transfer of Mr. Brines to duties elsewhere.

The child was killed instantly by a compound fracture of the skull at 7 o'clock on the night of May 30 when his bicycle was struck by a southbound car operated by the 21-year-old Lingg. The youth was enroute to Middle Creek to go fishing when the accident occurred.

According to the petition to compromise, Lingg will pay $1,544.64 plus the costs in the case and all administrative costs.

Other business of this morning's session included postponement by agreement of a scheduled hearing in two equity cases involving the division of property between George Dewey Wyatt and his former wife, Nora I. Wyatt, Gettysburg R. D.

$750 AUTO CRASH

This morning's light rain may have been a factor in an auto crash a mile north of here on the Biglerville Rd.

State police said Wilbur C. Alexander, 20, Biglerville, lost control of his car when it skidded on the wet highway at 6:50 o'clock this morning, left the roadway and hit a utility pole. Alexander escaped injury. Damage to his car was estimated at $750.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Atty. J. Francis Yake, New Oxford R. D., with offices on Baltimore St. here, underwent surgery this week at the Hanover Hospital.

Woman Was Not Accident Victim

The death of Miss Margie B. Baldwin, 54, Aspers, was not in any way caused by the auto accident October 30 at Heidlersburg in which she was injured. County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said today.

Miss Baldwin had been treated for bruises and other minor injuries October 30 immediately after a three-car collision in which she and six others were hurt and a York woman was killed instantly.

Because of her involvement in the recent accident, Dr. Crist decided to have an autopsy performed after Miss Baldwin was rushed to the Warner Hospital here Wednesday afternoon and died seven hours later.

Dr. Crist said the autopsy disclosed the death was caused by cancer of the kidneys and other abdominal organs.

JAYCEES VOTE TO BUILD NEW SANTA SHANTY

Santa Claus will have a new "shanty" when he comes to town November 27.

The Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Thursday evening in the Western Maryland Railway station, Carlisle St., decided the old shanty, which has housed Santa for years, is "just about shot," and as a result decision was made to construct a new "home" to be placed on Lincoln Square where Santa can greet youngsters during the Christmas time.

Ray Mackley, general chairman for Santa's activities, reported Santa will arrive at 7 p.m. on Friday, November 27. He will be welcomed by Mayor William G. Weaver and will turn on the town's Christmas street decorations. He will remain at his shanty for about two hours to greet youngsters.

From November 27 to December 14, Santa will be at the shanty only on Friday and Saturday nights from 7 to 9. Starting December 14 and continuing through December 23 he will be at the shanty each evening.

FIRE CALL TO 8 COMPANIES ON THURSDAY

Eight Adams County fire companies were summoned to fires Thursday afternoon.

Potentially most dangerous was a blaze in a garage at McSherrytown which caused $3,700 damage and threatened a number of cylinders of bottled propane gas.

McSherrytown firemen were summoned at 4:24 Thursday afternoon when a fire occurred in the garage at the rear of the home of Augustus E. Miller, 120 N. Second St., McSherrytown. Arriving at the scene McSherrytown firemen radioed for Midway Fire Company to assist.

GARAGE DESTROYED

McSherrytown Fire Chief Eugene Murren said the fire destroyed a combination two-car garage and small upholstery shop owned by Miller and caused damage to two other buildings. The fire chief estimated damage at $3,700.

On arrival firemen found the one-story weatherboard garage and shop engulfed in flames and they concentrated their efforts in preventing the flames from igniting the cylinders of propane bottled gas stored on a platform of the B. C. Schuchart, Inc., warehouse immediately across the alley from the garage.

The heat of the flames damaged the large overhead door at the Schuchart warehouse, a truck parked nearby and caused damage estimated at $450 to a garage in the rear of the home of Mrs. Marie Miller, 124 N. Second St. Chief Murren estimated the damage.

CAR CRASHES DIESEL NEAR ASPERS; YOUTH IS INJURED

Claude Allen Kennedy, 20, Gardners R. 2, suffered lacerations of the face and puncture wounds of both legs Thursday afternoon at 4:15 when his car crashed into a diesel locomotive at the railroad crossing along the Aspers-Center Mills Rd. about 1/4 miles south of Aspers.

Removed from the scene in the Biglerville ambulance, Kennedy was brought to the Warner Hospital here and admitted as a patient.

According to state police, the car struck the rear of the Reading Co. diesel as it crossed the roadway, demolishing the 1955 sedan. There was no damage to the locomotive, nor to the 14 cars it was pulling. G. R. Shover, Harrisburg, was the engineer.

Trooper Donald R. Bukewicz said Kennedy apparently did not see the locomotive until his car was upon it. The impact smashed the front of the auto, scraped and damaged the sides as well.

OTHER CRASHES RECALLED

The railroad crossing at the Adams County Nursery and Fruit Farms was the scene just a year ago of a similar accident in which a train and a truck were involved. Three train-vehicle accidents were reported last fall, the train-truck-trailer accident October 31 at the Aspers-Center Mills Rd. crossing and then two occurred at the Biglerville Rd. crossing of the Reading, a truck-train accident November 10, and November 19 a car-train accident. The same railroad engineer was involved in all three of last year's train-motor vehicle accidents, but the locomotive operator, George William Harmon, 45, Hummelstown, was not at fault in any of the accidents, investigations showed.

OPTIMISTS TO HONOR PAIR ON WEDNESDAY

Gettysburg Optimist Club will mark "Youth Appreciation Week" with a dinner program next Wednesday honoring "the outstanding boy and girl of Adams County."

The current week marks the eighth anniversary of the "Youth Appreciation Week" by the Optimist Clubs nationally. The program was started by Optimist Clubs of North Carolina in 1954 when they considered that of the youths aged 13 to 19 in the U.S. less than five per cent ever get into any difficulties. Noting the great publicity given to the less than five per cent, while the 95 per cent who are good citizens received little credit, the clubs decided to devote special programs to honoring the nation's youth.

Two years later the idea was adopted nationally by the Optimists.

William Black, chairman for the Optimists' Youth Committee, said Rev. John Bishop, assistant pastor of St. James Lutheran Church here, will be the speaker Wednesday evening at the 6:30 dinner in the Five Star.

Chamber Of Commerce May Increase Its Dues To Meet Deficit; Serious Problem

Cannot Stop Phone Gabbing

WATERVILLE, N. Y. (AP) —The talkers became shouters and a telephone company's plan to limit party-line conversations to eight minutes will be dropped.

The Chenango-Unadilla Telephone Corp. installed a cut-off device on party lines in this hamlet last month when a dial system went into use.

When long-winded talkers neared the eight-minute mark a buzzer would sound and the connection was cut.

The company's northern district manager, Robert C. Lindquist, said the enforced brevity will be ended Monday because those disliking it were more numerous and more vocal.

LISTS EXPENSES

Estep cited the expenses involved in conducting the business of the chamber as follows:

Secretarial salary, $1,560; rent, $380; telephone, $170; cleaning, $24; insurance, $25; postage, $100; supplies, $70; membership dues in the state and national C of C, $50, and social security, $50. This is a total of $2,429.

Other expenses include home decorating program, $200; advertising, $25; annual dinner, $175; BIE Day, $275, and miscellaneous, $75. Total expenses are $3,179.

With membership receipts of $2,750 it leaves a deficit of $429.

MONEY, WORKERS NEEDED

"We need money and we need workers if the chamber is to survive," Estep declared. "We cannot continue in this fashion any longer. It is up to the businessmen of Gettysburg to determine our future."

"We must raise more money and this likely means that we must increase our dues and also increase dual memberships."

"It has been suggested that we leave our second floor offices and secure a ground floor location so that we advertise our chamber and perhaps help to advertise the business of our members with window displays. A ground floor office may mean an increase in rental of $380 a year to $1,000.

"We need funds to entertain the many distinguished visitors who come to Gettysburg every year. We need to expand our civic affairs program and other projects."

SEEKS SUGGESTIONS

"I'm looking for suggestions from the membership which I

Forest Fires Rage, Winter Crops Waste Away And Many Towns Running Out Of Water

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Residents of the dry East and Midwest, gripped in a deepening drought and taking emergency water conservation measures, looked today to the West for relief.

There were no moisture problems west of the Rockies where storms have dumped heavy rain and snow for more than a week. The Weather Bureau said a storm center over Wyoming was intensifying, and the eastward-moving disturbance was ready to spread out on the Plains.

A shift of rainy, snowy weather to the Eastern drought region from the Rocky Mountains is possible next week, the Weather Bureau said.

COOLER AIR

Meanwhile, there was a spread of cooler air which generated some moisture in the upper Great Lakes region and along the Appalachian highlands.

This precipitation, though, was little compared with the storm which covered most of the Great Basin with one to five inches of new snow. Very dry conditions continued from the central Mississippi Valley and some Plains sections to the Atlantic Coast.

Forest fires raged, communities sought emergency aid and winter crops wasted away in the warm, sunny autumn. Officials said the drought would cost farmers and other citizens millions of dollars.

Some communities began drawing water from recreational lakes. Farmers were using tank trucks to haul water to their fields.

GET SOME RAIN

Some rain eased the dry spell slightly in the Midwest, but one farmer said, "It (the rain) just didn't begin to soak in."

A four-day rain and snow storm in Northern California began tapering off Thursday night. Most of the West Coast was soaked. Other parts of the Northwest lay under snow.

The New Jersey Conservation Department has directed water

TRAVELOGUE SUNDAY NIGHT

Panoramic time-exposures of Acapulco at night will be among the slides to be shown by Gene "Mac" Albright, Gettysburg school teacher, during his travelogue on Mexico to be shown Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank under auspices of the Gettysburg Photographic Society.

The series of 35mm. color slides were taken by Albright this summer during a visit to Mexico and is the second in the series of travelogues presented for the general public by the Photographic Society.

Dr. C. A. Sloat, chairman for the presentations, said slides taken by Albright in the mountains between Tamazunchale and Zimapan "are especially spectacular." One of the pictures to be shown during the illustrated talk was awarded the "Best Slide of Show" at the South Mountain Fair in September.

The pictures, according to Dr. Sloat, include as highlights extensive coverage of the Sierra Madre Oriental mountains, the El Salto waterfall, Mexico, and the little-known Xochicalco ruins.

Albright drove through Mexico and his talk will also discuss aspects of that mode of travel in that country.

The article describes the county's fruit belt, which is estimated to provide $25,000,000 to the county's economy in labor, materials, manufacturing and marketing, and refers to the belt as "Apple Land of the East."

The cover photograph of the current issue is the Lincoln Speech Memorial in the National Cemetery, only monument ever erected to commemorate a speech. It is one of more than 2,300 monuments, statues and markers on the field.

Pleads Guilty To Delinquency Count

Frederick W. Trent, 22, Fairfield R. 2, Thursday afternoon pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors brought by borough police. He posted $500 bail to appear before the Adams County court for sentence December 14.

At the same time the justice mailed a number of defendants notices of charges brought against them by state police.

Four truck operators notified they are charged with not having current inspection stickers on their vehicles were listed as Richard G. Arentz, Gettysburg R. 1; Robert Francis Ford, Gettysburg R. 3; Carroll T. Mays, Hanover, and Robert S. Steinberger, Gettysburg.

STOCKS IRREGULAR
NEW YORK (AP)—Weakness in some of the motors was countered by selective strength in key stocks early this afternoon and the stock market edged irregularly higher.

Trading was moderately active, but below Thursday's pace.

Weakness in Ford was an early feature as many of its employees were idled by strikes and layoffs. The stock trimmed a loss which at one time exceeded a point.

suppliers to report to state agencies every other day on the water supply so that state can take emergency action when warranted. Officials said there is enough water on hand for 38 days.

BORROW WATER
Residents in the North Jersey community of Franklin Lakes are borrowing water for bathing. The last measurable rainfall in New Jersey was .01 inch Nov. 5.

Light showers Thursday in New England did little to alleviate the drought, which passed its 195th day. A Massachusetts official estimated that the state's dairy industry and produce farmers alone would suffer $6 million damages.

Officials in Fitchburg, Mass., said the community must have plentiful rain by mid-December or face the prospect of no water at all by February.

SUPPLY WATER
New York City has been supplying water from city reservoirs since September to nearby towns which have shortages.

Many Pennsylvania farmers are trucking water for livestock and for winter wheat. Twenty-seven communities are using emergency water supplies. Officials said the forest fire situation is getting worse.

Forty-eight forest fires broke out in Pennsylvania Wednesday, destroying 575 acres. Fires have been averaging 25 a day since the first of the month.

FIELDS BONE DRY
Farmers in the Midwest, who stand to lose about $100 million from expected income, gazed on bone dry fields.

More than 4,500 acres of brush and timber have been scorched in the past two days in Indiana, where the last rain was Oct. 18. The state is 4.46 inches below last year's rainfall.

Illinois struggled through one of its most disastrous autumns in history. Wheat was stunted, and the southern half of the state fought hundreds of brush and forest fires. Southern Illinois has gone 45 consecutive days without rain, a record.

RAIN AND WIND
Heavy rains struck virtually all of Wisconsin Thursday accompanied by wind gusts up to 58 m.p.h.

Oregon was soaked by torrential rainstorms and mountain areas were coated with snow. In Colorado, ski operators were elated by a two-day snowstorm that measured up to a foot.

A solid three days of rain and snow ended the long dry spell in California. Heavy snows in the mountains sent ski areas into high gear.

DETROIT (AP)—Strike-plagued Ford Motor Co. starts a huge layoff of workers across the country tonight in a cutback which President Arjay Miller says may become a complete shutdown next week.

Company officials blame week-old strikes by the United Auto Workers Union at seven factories, including key parts and stamping plants that feed the Ford production scheme.

If Ford closes all its 90 facilities, a total of 160,000 hourly workers will be laid off.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six railroad shop unions have scheduled a strike against most of the nation's railroads for 6 a.m. local time November 23, union sources said today.

The strike notice has not yet been served on the railroads but union general chairmen are issuing instructions to the more than 150,000 shop workers, sources said.

Federal mediators continued efforts to reach a settlement in a 17-month-old wage dispute, meeting with union spokesman Michael Fox.

DALLAS (AP)—A spokesman for the United Auto Workers said today that the Dallas local has reached agreement with the Ford Motor Co.

DOOR FORCED OPEN
George Ramos, operator of the F and T Restaurant, York St., reported to borough police Thursday that during the preceding night someone had pried open a door to the rear of the restaurant, gaining entrance to a storage room, and then had attempted to enter the restaurant proper, but had been unable to do so. Cites Need For Two College Buildings: Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, told the Alumni Council of the college, at its fall meeting in the SCA building this morning, that the college needs a chapel and a field house and, in the not too distant future, a new administration building.

He said that the college must have the new buildings if its present enrollment of approximately 1,200 is maintained. The alternative will be a reduction of the student enrollment to approximately 650. He also said that the new buildings are almost essential if the college is to maintain its present rating among colleges.

Prof. C. E. Bilheimer, director of athletics at Gettysburg college, received word over the weekend of the sudden deaths of his mother and his only aunt and today left for New York City where his only daughter is submitting to an appendectomy.

Saturday afternoon as the Gettysburg college football team climaxed their thrilling victory over the Bucknell football team on Memorial field, Professor Bilheimer received word that his mother, Mrs. H. B. Bechtel, had died suddenly at her home in Bethlehem, Pa. Death had come at 2:20 p.m. Saturday, after a heart attack. She had been ill for a week.

More than 2,000 alumni and friends of Gettysburg college returned to the campus Friday and Saturday for the annual Fall Homecoming. According to Alumni Secretary C. Paul Cessna, "it was one of the largest and most enthusiastic Homecomings ever held."

A demonstration of the new Chrysler "waterproofed" motor was given Saturday afternoon in Center square by representatives of the Gettysburg Motors. Glenn C. Bream, proprietor. A hose was used and water run over the top of the motor in a Chrysler car, and the car then started, to demonstrate the ability of the motor to start when wet. The company also claims the car is not affected by fog.

William White, 75, father of Mrs. Glenn L. Bream, West Broadway, died Monday morning at 11 o'clock at his home in Reno, Nev. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

Ralph Pitzer, Bienville R. 1, fruit grower, enjoys the distinction of being the first human being on whom the new medicine neomycin has been used, and at the same time he gratefully owes his life to this new-found antibiotic.

Two years ago Mr. Pitzer was studied at the Annie M. Warner hospital by Drs. Bruce N. Wolff, Roy W. Gifford and C. Harold Johnson for urinary tract infection. Although the trouble was readily found no known remedy could bring the infection under control. Treatment with tremendous dosages of sulfa drugs, penicillin, streptomycin, chloromycetin, and aureomycin were successively used, but to no avail. Five days after the administration of the neomycin he left the hospital and has resumed his activities as a fruit grower and farmer.

Today's Talk

ALWAYS EXPECT THE BEST
Are you forever selling happiness short? You are if you have acquired the habit of looking upon the dark side of things, having no confidence in yourself, and expecting the worst to happen.

To do just the opposite is to live the triumphant life — and the happy one. By always expecting the best to come about, you fore-arm yourself to meet the worst if it does appear. The effect of cheerfulness and hope upon one's mental state is tremendous. The shiftless old Micawber, the famous Dickens character, is an inspiring one, even though he never seemed to get very far — for he was always expecting "something to turn up."

It is far better to aim at something even though you may fail in gaining your objective, than to aim at nothing, or to expect nothing — and get just that! Nothing is quite so inspiring as to pursue your heart's desire. By expecting the best to come about you prepare every foot of the way to enjoy it when it comes. No good effort toward anything is ever lost.

Too many pause and grieve over "spilled milk." There are still plenty of cows in the world — and they give plenty of milk! The opportunity lost is not the final one. There are millions left. Better ones, too, undoubtedly. That canceled order that reached your desk today may even preface a bigger and better order! Never let that expectation of yours die on the vine.

How many people there are who think, at some time in their lives, that they are through, that further fighting is useless. The truth may be that this condition of mind is but the experience of "growing pains," the advance evidence of genuine birth to the very thing most desired. We never know just what our bitterest experiences may most mean. So, always expect the best!

Just Folks

"ALL THINGS MATTER"
We've no way of knowing where the course of life may run.
Who may be bettered or cheapered by some trivial
deed we've done;

'Tis not given us to discover what in our neighbors we
Or to learn, for good or evil, what our influence may be.

Life is not a simple matter; from the moment of our birth Changes past our power to number come unnoticed to the earth;

And whenever any baby at this troubled world arrives
It imposes new conditions on innumerable lives.

"Nothing matters!" says the cynic.
"All things matter!" I reply,
"If I stoop to reckless folly, some one near perhaps may die.
And the pleasure I am grasping may for some one else be pain."

Since the loneliest man that's living still must share his loss and gain."

There are always those who suffer when our weaknesses appear.
There are those who share our failures, though the cynics scuff and sneer.

And the dreadful truth about it,
if the facts could all be known
Of the sum of good and evil, is that no one lives alone.

POST WILL CUT TO BIWEEKLY

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — The New York and Pennsylvania Co., a paper manufacturing subsidiary of Curtis Publishing Co., says it will lay off at least 250 employees as a result of a decision to publish the Saturday Evening Post biweekly.

Curtis, which has been beset with financial problems, announced in Philadelphia Thursday that the weekly Post would be published biweekly beginning in January.

The paper company said its layoffs, attributable directly to the cutback, would start in December. The company employs about 1,300 persons. A Curtis spokesman said the firm's operations in the Elk County community of Johnsonburg would not be affected. The New York and Pennsylvania Co. said its soda pulp mill here will be closed completely Dec. 4 and that other facilities in operation six days a week will be cut back to five. This will mean a decrease in pay for other employees, a spokesman said.

Fingerless Boy Plays Trombone' Makes Models

By DAN MCNULTY

ELMWOOD PARK, Ill. (AP) — Bruce Gongola dances, swims, plays the trombone and makes model cars and planes. He is a guard on the Elmwood Park High School freshman football team, and he plans to try out for basketball.

Bruce, 14, is a typical boy except he has no fingers and has only one toe on each foot. The only thing he can't do, his mother says, is tie his shoelaces.

"It's very important to continue your education and try these different things," Bruce said. "You've got to at least try."

BORN HANDICAPPED

Bruce, who was born handicapped, began his education at the Luther Burbank School for Handicapped Children in Chicago. After three years his parents transferred him to Rhodes School, a regular public school in River Grove, a suburb of Chicago.

In the fourth grade Bruce began playing the slide trombone. He manipulates it with his wrists and now is a member of the Elmwood Park High band.

"Bruce is very strongly determined to do things," his mother, Mrs. Raymond E. Gondola, said. "And he always finds a way."

AIMS AT COLLEGE

"When he was three years old," she said, "we dropped a penny on the floor to see whether he would pick it up. He stood there for a few minutes, then moistened his hands and picked it up."

Bruce is the oldest of four boys and the only one with a handicap. He wants to go to college but hasn't decided what he wants to do professionally. Mrs. Gondola said Bruce maintains a good academic average.

He works as a junior counselor at a camp for handicapped children during the summer.

Bruce is 5 feet 2 and weighs 120 pounds, but football is a natural sport for the Gongolas. His father played in high school. His uncle, Don Gongola, is a former University of Illinois quarterback and currently the backfield coach at Harvard University.

STATE FEARS FOREST FIRES THRU DROUGHT

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Department of Forests and Waters says the forest fire situation in Pennsylvania is deteriorating because of lack of adequate rainfall.

Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, department secretary, added however, that the threat was not so bad as to necessitate the closing of the state's vast acreage of woodland to hunters.

"The situation is deteriorating but I'd be willing to ride along like this until next week," Goddard said Thursday.

SPARK DANGEROUS

The forest fire hazard has resulted from the prolonged drought which has parched most of the state since July. The least little spark of burning coal is enough to send acres of dry woodland up in smoke.

Goddard's concern was drawn to a report that 48 new forest fires broke out in Pennsylvania Wednesday destroying $75 acres of land.

This included one fire which burned 125 acres near the selected site of the Ohio State Park in southern Fayette County.

Since the small game hunting season opened Oct. 31, forest fires had been averaging 25 per day, Goddard said. He was quick to absolve hunters of potential blame, saying their behavior "has been excellent."

PLAN NEW BAN

He said the state probably would institute a ban on smoking and open fires before barring hunters and the general public from the woods.

Meanwhile, the State Health Department reported that it had issued three emergency water supply permits thus far in November, bringing to 27 the number of communities in the state on such relief.

Arthur F. Lehmann, of the department's public water supply section, said most of the affected communities are located in Central Pennsylvania, although of late, the water shortages "have been spreading to the western part of the state."

JOHNSON HAS HUGE LEAD IN NOV. 3RD VOTE

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has a record lead of 15.6 million votes over Sen. Barry Goldwater as unofficial returns from the Nov. 3 presidential election continue to trickle in.

All but 870 of the more than 175,000 voting units having reported, the unofficial vote is: Johnson 42,374,405, Goldwater 26,731,717.

The President has 61.1 per cent of the presidential vote of 69,306,122, including some 200,000 votes cast for Democratic electors in Alabama who were not pledged to Johnson.

With 270 needed to win, Johnson rolled up 496 electoral votes by carrying 44 states and the District of Columbia. Goldwater got 52 with six states.

ABSENTEE VOTE

When the still uncounted absentee ballots and third-party votes are added about a month from now, the official vote is expected to be close to 70 million compared with 68.8 million in 1960.

But the percentage of those of voting age who cast presidential ballots apparently will be less than the 63.1 of four years ago.

A preliminary study showed that 60.8 per cent of Americans of voting age voted this year. The figure is based on the Census Bureau's estimate that 114 million Americans were of voting age on election day.

But estimates of state officials and other observers were that only 88.9 million of the 114 million were registered or otherwise qualified to vote.

UPSURGE IN SOUTH

There was a strong upsurge of votes in the South. Three reasons for this were absence of poll tax requirements in five Southern states for the first time, a determined Negro registration drive and interest stirred by Goldwater. Five of the six states he carried are in the South.

Despite the upsurge, though, the South as a whole still trailed the nation. Ten of the 12 lowest participants, with 50 per cent or less casting presidential ballots, were in the South.

Leading the nation by percentage was Utah, where 76.9 per cent of the voting age citizens cast presidential ballots. Next were Minnesota with 76.4 per cent and Idaho with 75.3 per cent.

Pope Paul Returns Rare First Edition

ROME (AP) — "It will be a beautiful memento for this occasion," said Pope Paul VI, handing a 1923 first-edition edition of Shakespeare to an aide, who promptly walked away with it.

It was an embarrassing moment for members of Britain's Royal Stratford Shakespeare company. A member of the company, Dorothy Tutin, had handed the book to the Pope for his blessing.

In the confusion immediately after a special performance given for the Pope and many of the 2,000 prelates attending the Vatican Ecumenical Council, Pope Paul VI mistook the $60,000 book as a gift.

After a hasty explanation by Archbishop John C. Heenan, the folio was returned.

Young Musician Threatens HHH

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, V.I. (AP) — A 22-year-old musician, Israel Nunez, Feliciano, has been charged with threatening Vice President-elect Hubert H. Humphrey.

Nunez was arraigned Thursday and ordered held in $500 bail for trial.

U.S. Secret Service agents said Nunez was arrested last Friday, the day Humphrey arrived in the Virgin Islands for a vacation.

A police official said the charge probably will be dropped when Humphrey leaves the islands Nov. 20.

LBJ PLEDGES TO AID MEXICO IN SOCIAL WAR

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, pledging to "take up arms" with Mexico in fighting disease, poverty, hunger and ignorance, pressed ahead today with final talks with Mexico's President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz.

Diaz Ordaz, himself a landslide election victor who will be inaugurated Dec. 1 as the Mexican chief executive, was winding up a 27-hour stay at the Johnson Ranch.

Diaz Ordaz was to return with his wife to Mexico City after another formal session with Johnson and a private luncheon.

TOUR OF RANCH

The order of the day was not confined wholly to business, however. There was the inevitable tour of the American President's 400 acres, with Johnson as the enthusiastic guide.

In welcoming Diaz Ordaz Thursday afternoon, Johnson said: "We are meeting here to talk together and to work together, and to take up arms together against the ancient enemies of mankind — disease and poverty and hunger and ignorance."

Diaz Ordaz responded by saying: "I am here to seal a friendship with a warm handshake with President Johnson from me and the Mexican people, and to him and through him to the American people."

"WORK TOGETHER"

He said he was sure the two leaders "will be able to work together with reciprocal respect and joint cooperation to maintain the principles that have inspired our two peoples."

The principal reason for the ranch get-together between Johnson and Diaz Ordaz was simply to become acquainted.

Johnson acknowledged problems — such as over Cuba — do exist between the United States and Mexico.

"We are here to discuss them," he said. "And in the days ahead we will resolve them in peace, with reason, with justice to each other."

Pope May Visit U.S., Canada

NEW YORK (AP) — Pope Paul VI someday may visit the United States and Canada, says Msgr. Alberto Giovannetti, the Vatican's permanent observer at the United Nations.

Msgr. Giovannetti said Thursday the Roman Catholic pontiff would make such a trip only in connection with "a religious occasion that would justify such a visit."

The National Catholic Welfare Conference has invited Pope Paul to attend an international convocation for world peace in New York next Feb. 18-20. But Msgr. Giovannetti said "I do not think the conference would qualify as such an occasion."

Bullets Seek Lambert Cup Honors At Temple; Expect Big Air Battle

A great aerial football battle is anticipated in Temple Stadium, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon at 1:30 when the Gettysburg College Bullets close out their season against the Owls. A win is mandatory for the Bullets if they are to maintain their top spot in the quest for the Lambert Cup trophy.

Over 1,000 local students and fans will follow the Bullets to Philadelphia for the all-important battle. A tremendous advance sale of tickets was reported today at the local athletic office.

The air clash will find Jim Word and Don Enders tossing for the Bullets against Joe Petro and Mark Lichtenfield of Temple.

Gettysburg enter the game with a 7-1 record overall and a perfect 5-0 mark in the MAC. The Bullets won their first Middle Atlantic Conference university division championship in history when Temple defeated Delaware last week. Gettysburg is also leading the way in the Lambert Cup ratings as the east's best small college team.

TEMPLE RECORD

Temple is jockeying for second place in the MAC with a 2-1 slate. The Owls own five wins on the season compared to two setbacks. Those who have fallen before the powerful Owls include Kings Point, Southern Connecticut, Boston University, Lafayette and Delaware. The losses have been to Connecticut and Bucknell.

Coach George Makris' starting backfield will consist of quarterback, Lichtenfield; halfbacks, Fred Fuchs, 5'3", 170, and Jerry Preschutti, 5'10", 175, and fullback E. Niewinski, 6', 200. Lichtenfield is the leading passer, having hit 47 of 76 tosses for 393 yards. However, the alternating field general, Petro, is the team's second leading rusher with 32 carries for 139 yards. He has also connected on 38 of 85 aeriels for 439 yards. The two passers have accounted for nine TD throws.

Senior Paul Malatesta is the team's top rusher with 25 carries for 141 yards. Malatesta sustained an injury last week and is on the doubtful list against the Bullets. Fuchs is running third on the ground with 43 carries for 122 yards. The favorite targets in the air attack are ends Ed Reinoso and Steve Speers. Reinoso, a 6'1", 180-pound sophomore, has pulled down 21 tosses for 193 yards while Speers, 6'1", 208-pound senior, has accounted for 14 catches for 159 yards. Petro is the top scorer with 28 points.

LINES MAY DECIDE

The outcome of Saturday's battle could very well be decided up front. Temple's starting line will include: Speers and Reinoso, ends; Andy Logue, 6'4", 210, and Tom Koehler, 6'1", 235, tackles; Ron Bazis, 5'3", 185, and Bill Schalles, 5'10", 208, guards, and Charlie Zontanos, 5'10", 210, center.

All season Haas has been able to count on the equal performance of two strong forward walls. The Bullets will continue to go with his first unit consisting of ends, Joe Egresitz, 6'2", 200, and Dick Masin, 6'1", 210; tackle, Irv Stroecker, 6'4", 225; guards, Ron Brenzel, 6', 185, and Brian Tierney, 6', 195, and center, Bob Furney, 6', 205. The second unit in cludes ends, Mark Snyder, 6', 190, and Pat Noonan, 6', 200; tackle, Lloyd Grumbein, 6'3", 235; guards, Bill Brooks, 5'9", 190, and Ken Snowe, 5'11", 190, and center, Ray Frick, 6'4", 225.

Duffy Daugherty isn't trying to get Notre Dame's Irish up, honest he isn't. It just happens that Daugherty coaches the Michigan State football team that just happens to be the main stumbling block on the road to a perfect season for the Irish.

That makes Daugherty public enemy number one around South Bend, Ind. and the affable little Spartan coach is enjoying every minute of it as he readies his club for their shot at the top-ranked Irish Saturday.

Just to stir things up a bit, Daugherty phoned Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian and told him: "Ara, we're going to do you a favor Saturday. We're going to knock you off and take you off the spot."

OFFERS TO HELP

"You know if you got through unbeaten your first season, you'll be in trouble. Your red-hot alumni will be expecting it every year. So if you lose a couple, they'll be yelling for your scalp. But we'll fix that."

State has fixed Notre Dame pretty well over the last few years with the Irish showing just one victory in the last 12 meetings. Daugherty's clubs have won eight in a row. Mildly stated, the Irish are tired of being pushed around by MSU.

REMEMBER CLOSE CALL

Michigan State lost three of their first four games but has come on strong with three straight victories capped by a 21-7 victory over Purdue last Saturday which knocked the Boilermakers out of a tie for the Big Ten lead.

Notre Dame is 7-0 but had a scare a week ago when it still eked out a 17-15 victory against underdog Pitt.

That close call makes the Irish suspect. Only two weeks ago, Ohio State, then No. 1, slipped by Iowa 21-19. Along came unranked Penn State to knock off the Buckeyes 27-0 last Saturday and drop them to seventh place in the poll. Ohio State goes after some of its lost prestige at home Saturday against Northwestern.

The weekend's slate gets started tonight with Miami of Florida hosting Boston College.

BO BELINSKY

IS TRYING TO

COLLECT PAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Bo Belinsky may have the financial shorts when he takes off for Japan on a pool-shooting exhibition trip with teammate Dean Chance this winter.

The headline-grabbing southpaw hoped to collect some $4,000 to $6,000 in back pay from the Los Angeles Angels when he visited Commissioner Ford Frick Thursday. He didn't have much hope of a payment soon, if at all, after a closed hearing.

Frick took Belinsky's plea under advisement but he did not indicate when he would make a decision.

TRouble IN AUGUST

Belinsky's problems stemmed from an altercation with Los Angeles baseball writer Braven Dyer in Washington last August.

The pitcher was suspended the next day. Later, when he was reinstated, Bo was released to the club's Hawaii farm in the Pacific Coast League. Belinsky refused to report and the club placed him on the disqualified list Aug. 22.

This list covers players who allegedly have not fulfilled their contracts. Belinsky claims payment for the final six weeks of the season.

Abundance Of Uncontrolled Hair Does Not Bother Young Sensitive Prince Charles, 16

By EDDY GILMORE LONDON (AP) — Prince Charles—16 Saturday—is developing into an independent, conscientious and sensitive young man highly aware that one day he will be a king.

The heir to the British throne has grown up in the relentless glare of publicity. Yet he is extremely self-conscious about criticism, the kind he thinks is an invasion of his privacy.

Prince Charles' royal features were ruffled recently when some newspapers accused him of adopting a Beatle haircut. He is reported to have said, with the wounded feelings of an introspective schoolboy: "Beatle hair cut nothing. I was wearing my hair the way I do before the Beatles were heard of."

ABUNDANT HAIR He was correct. His dark chestnut hair is abundant and not easily controlled.

Charles is much in favor of the Beatles, however. More than a year ago the corridors of Buckingham Palace, Windsor Castle and Balmoral Castle were echoing with the quartet's blasts.

The banging and wailing came from the prince's room, from records he had bought at school, paid for from his hardly lavish pocket money.

When he is away from his school, tough Gordonstoun up in Scotland, the prince takes his records with him. He also owns a guitar.

PRINCELY ANGER The longish royal hair is said to have caused a bit of princely anger down in Athens in September when members of Britain's royal family arrived for the wedding of King Constantine to Princess Anne-Marie of Denmark.

A strong wind was whipping across the airport and it happened to be at the hatless prince's back. Pictures showed him squinting into the sun, his hair in wild disarray.

Court sources said he was not amused.

Charles' head got him into trouble once before. When he was at Cheam School and was answering questions at a geography lesson, he is said to have told schoolmates: "But I do know Malta. I've been there several times. In our ship."

"BIG HEAD" "Big head," muttered a chum.

The next thing Prince Charles knew he was getting the business, the traditional business for showing off.

He was thrown to the ground after class and several boys in rapid succession sat on his head.

At Cheam this ancient process is called "shrinking the nut," the nut meaning the head.

Charles' best subject is geography, in which he seems genuinely interested. He is also a good sailor. His worst subject is French.

CALLED CHARLES

At the queen's and Prince Philip's orders the young prince is called Charles by his schoolmates and friends. Palace servants also address him as Charles. His parents have laid much emphasis on his being treated as other boys. He is given the same spending money as the majority of his schoolmates. If he has a girl friend, this is a well-kept secret.

GEORGE BALL WILL CONFER WITH GERMANS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of State George W. Ball flies to Germany today to confer with West German leaders on U.S.-European relations and divisions in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Ball's mission fits into a pattern of consultations among Allied leaders on a variety of Atlantic Alliance problems ranging from economic difficulties to the critical dispute over proposed formation of a seaboard NATO nuclear weapons force.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk conferred with Netherlands and Belgian leaders here last weekend. Rusk is scheduled to attend a conference of NATO foreign ministers in Paris in December.

GOING TO FRANKFURT
West German Defense Minister Kai-Uwe Von Hassel is in Washington talking with Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and other officials about the nuclear force issue and other defense problems.

Ball is scheduled to fly from Frankfurt to West Berlin Saturday to speak to the Fourth German American Conference, an assembly of distinguished citizens of both countries. He will also meet with Mayor Willy Brandt Saturday and attend the closing session of the German American conference on Sunday morning.

ON TO BONN

On Sunday afternoon Ball will fly to Bonn, the West German capital, where on Monday morning he will confer with Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and Foreign Minister Gerhard Schröder. Tuesday morning he is due to confer with Walter Hallstein, president of the European Common Market. He will return to Washington in mid-week.

Ball's major concern, officials said, is to urge settlement within the Common Market of differences over an agricultural pricing policy. Resolution of this dispute, primarily between West Germany and France, is considered essential to the successful negotiation later on of a tariff cutting agreement between the six-nation Common Market and the United States.

TASK FORCES SEND REPORTS FOR LBJ STUDY

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is, or soon will be, poring over a batch of special reports he will use in charting the course of his own administration — and the nation — in the years ahead.

From them Johnson intends to draw up the blueprints for his legislative plans that he will hand to Congress in his State of the Union address in January.

The reports are being drafted by almost a score of task forces he assigned weeks ago to such long-standing problems as education, transportation, the urban jumble, care for the elderly, the economy and others.

REFER TO "GREAT SOCIETY"
Many refer one way or another to his version of what he calls the "Great Society," a concept he first discussed publicly last May in a speech at the University of Michigan.

Abundance and liberty for all with an "end to poverty and racial injustice" is just the beginning and the places to start to build this "Great Society," he said, are "in our cities, in our countryside and in our classrooms."

Much of his stress was on the turmoil and problems of the growing, tangled cities — the slum, overcrowded schools, snarled traffic, housing — and he said "in the next 40 years we must rebuild the entire urban United States."

FEW DETAILS

But the solutions, he said, would not come from a massive Washington project but required "new concepts of cooperation — a creative federalism — between the national capital and the leaders of local communities."

So far few details have leaked out about the task forces' progress. One group is reportedly weighing the pros and cons of various tax reduction plans. Another is said to be studying the possibility of hitching Social Security payments to ups and downs in the cost of living.

Much of such social legislation — for aid to education, medical care for the elderly through Social Security, urban affairs, for instance — have hit hard walls of opposition in the past.

HAS RUNNING START

Many Republicans and Democratic conservatives have stormed at the hazards of "big government and big spending."

But this time, Johnson has a running start.

His programs stand to receive the warmest reception in Congress of any president's since Franklin D. Roosevelt's in the 1930s. Not only did Johnson win the presidency on his own with a landslide, he has a Congress where the Democrats have a top-heavy majority in the Senate and will rule the House with their biggest majority since the New Deal's high tide in 1936.

And one of the first battles for the new Congress after it convenes in January will be over

LAST NIGHT WAS ROMAN HOLIDAY ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Network television Thursday night was something of a Roman holiday.

First there was NBC's medical team of Kildare and Gillespie sojourning in a studio reproduction of the Italian city and splitting their time almost equally between romance and a problem of disease.

Later, on ABC, came "Sophia Loren in Rome," an hour which had the Italian film star strolling around the more interesting, ancient and spectacular parts of the city spouting dates, statistics and figures like the most seasoned tour guide.

WITTY AND GAY

Of the two programs, Miss Loren's was infinitely more interesting and also more dramatic even if it did lack a formal plot. It was, in fact, witty and gay and imaginative from the opening scenes — a camera ballet of Rome in sunshine and rain, of cars and horses, gas pumps and great art, all conducted by the sweeping gestures of a traffic cop — to the final moment when Miss Loren, explaining the "cliche" tossed the medical care for the elderly. For years its passage has been blocked in the House.

But this time administration leaders think they'll get it through.

inevitable coin into the Trevi Fountain.

Presumably many viewers tuned in the program because of a greater interest in Miss Loren's impressive facade than in the double walls of Hadrian's Tomb.

But what made the program a blessing was the way wit and humor was blended with the skillful photography. It was the most attractive travelogue this viewer has seen — and the Italian Tourist Bureau should strike a medal for Miss Loren and Sheldon Reynolds, who wrote and directed it.

TO REPLACE "MICKEY"

It looks now as if ABC's "Mickey," which has not been well received and has also been hit by the death of featured player Sammee Tong, will be replaced in a couple of months by an extra half hour of the show that precedes it, "Shindig," a pop music half hour which has been a hit with the young rock 'n' roll crowd.

Recommended weekend viewing:

Tonight — "The Beatles in America," CBS, 8:30-9:30 Eastern Standard Time, narrated by Carol Burnett; "Miss Teen-Age America Pageant," CBS, 10-11, finals from Dallas.

Sunday — "Profiles in Courage," NBC, 6:30-7:30 p.m., the story of a Brooklyn school teacher; "The Beatles," ABC, 7:30-8:30, entertainment special.

Frederick Delius, the English composer was blind, and composed his complicated and beautiful scores by dictating them to a fellow musician. Today we have the Liessen Music Writer to help blind composers and arrangers.

A Lovelier You

MOON GLOW. When you wish to look your best for an evening occasion, does your mirror reflect a world-weary image? That's where new "shimmer" cosmetics work like magic. They brighten a tired face like the moon lights a dark sky.

To pick up a skin drawn and drained of color, just try a shimmered base or powder. One type of base is toned to the skin and is smoothed directly onto it. Another type is designated to overlay your favorite base for added glint.

Or you may prefer to obtain your sparkle from powder, radiant with gold. Brushed atop your accustomed base, it melds with it and begins to gleam.

Squirrel Hunter Downs Wildcat

LIVERMORE, Ky. (AP) — Although John R. Stofor didn't bag any squirrels on his hunting trip, he's still the envy of his friends.

Stofor was sitting under a tree watching for squirrels when a large wildcat appeared 10 feet away. He downed it with one shot.

The cat, weighing 17 pounds and measuring 30 inches, was the first killed in Ohio County in years.

For a fresh outlook, use an iridescent shadow on the eyelids. Some of them are pastel, flecked with silver and gold. Others are pure silver or gold, and are whisked over or under any smoky shade of pastel shadow.

Radiance comes to the lips via pearlized, silvered and gilded lipsticks and lip glazes. The basic shades are pink or rosy; it is the topnote that's luminous.

If those cosmetics sound theatrical, they do not look it. Not when deftly applied. The ideal application of any one gives a glow, not a sizzle.

You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness, or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper skin care, cosmetic applications, health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, THE EYES OF YOUTH. To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It has been found that about one of every 2,000 children is born with teeth. Since they are so loosely enmeshed, some doctors take the teeth out to keep the child from swallowing them.

I have just been informed that a flea can lift 140 times its own weight, and if you were as comparatively strong as a flea, you could hoist a 10-ton truck.

The human eye at its ordinary strength can detect four million shades of color, science has found. It also has been found that men are about 20 times as likely as women to suffer from color blindness.

UNSLEEPING EYE

The unsleeping eye of science also has discovered that neither the tapeworm nor the hookworm has a heart.

The largest infant ever born in this world is the calf of a blue whale. At birth, the whale calf measures up to 25 feet long and weighs several tons. In contrast, a polar bear cub weighs about a pound upon emergence from its mother, and can be cuddled in a woman's hand.

History lesson: Can you name the only U.S. president who was inaugurated in two cities? George Washington was sworn first to national command in New York on April 30, 1789, and at the start of his second term in Philadelphia, Pa. on March 4, 1793.

The apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lawford in the swank Fifth Avenue hotel now is available, price: $3,200 a month — gas and electricity free. No extra charge for the elevator.

As a wry contrast to our present prosperity, it may not be out of place to point out that about 200 years ago milk sold for 9 cents a gallon, tobacco at a nickel a pound, and bread at two cents a loaf.

What price knowledge: U.S. educational authorities estimate that by 1973 it will cost a freshman $12,250 to get through a private college, or $8,000 to graduate from a state college.

Know your language: The word asbestos means in effect "the unburnable stone." The ancient Romans used napkins made of asbestos, and instead of washing them in water purified them by thrusting them into flame.

Quickies: Turtles have no "ears" but hear well. A car was stolen every 1½ minutes last year. We eat about 28 million sandwiches a day. If you get into an argument with a bear, don't try to outrun him — he may gallop up to 35 miles an hour.

It was Oliver Wendell Holmes who observed, "To be 70 years young is sometimes far more cheerful and hopeful than to be 40 years old."

When an enlisted soldier salutes an officer, he carries on a custom practiced by cavemen. Hand raising as a formal greeting probably originated in prehistoric times on occasions when fearful strangers wanted to prove to one another they carried no weapons.

Sermon For The Week

By JOHN H. RUDY
Pastor
Bethel Mennonite Church

HIS LIFE, OUR LIFE
Human need and divine compassion. That's what you'll find in a most touching story recorded in Luke 7:11-17.

Notice the depth of human need. See the weeping widow in the funeral procession. Her only son, the pride and joy of her life, is gone. She trudges toward the graveyard brokenhearted, desolate, alone.

But the story doesn't end here.

There's divine compassion. Jesus approaches. Notice the words, "the Lord saw her." Oh, those eyes which miss nothing! He saw this poor woman in all her grief and distress. His great heart of love throbbled with compassion. He restored the son to life and gave him back to his mother. Sorrow was turned to joy, despair to hope.

SAME STORY
It's the same story today. There are still all kinds of need. Jesus continues to enter our communities and individual situations through the lives and personalities of those who are spiritually united to Him. You can be a vehicle, a container for His life, as you put your faith in Him. The Lord still sees those in need and has compassion on them, through the eyes and hearts of those who belong to Christ. Christ is still revealing His presence and demonstrating His power through the loving deeds of those who are yielded to Him.

What should be the nature of the Christian's mission in the world, the pattern of his life, the shape of his service. Take a good look at Jesus Christ. Who came into the world "not to be ministered unto, but to minister." He invites you to follow Him.

When the searing sun scorches the plains of India from April to October, thousands of Indians repair to Kashmir. The money they spend is an important part of the state's revenue.

OLD ENOUGH!

Not old enough for a novel, a dictionary, an encyclopedia.

But old enough for the Bible!

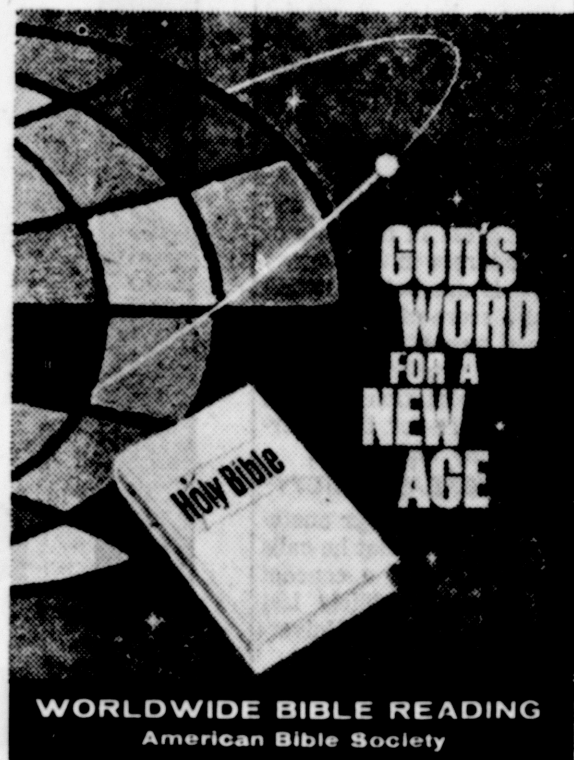

For in these very years before she fully understands its truth, a child learns to respect God's Word. Reverence is born. A sense of the importance of religion develops.

The passages must be short . . . and sensibly chosen. Childish but searching questions must be answered. Mother and Dad will soon discover that explaining Truth to their child deepens their own comprehension.

Take advantage of a parent's most sacred privilege. Introduce your child to God. Make the Bible part of the family. Participate in and cooperate with the Church's program of religious education.

A child grows spiritually whose parents grow spiritually!

IKE'S CATTLE IN BIG SHOW

Eisenhower Farms are among the many from Pennsylvania that will be represented by entries at the 1964 International Livestock Exposition, to be held in Chicago Nov. 27 to Dec. 5.

Gen. Arthur S. Nevins, manager of Eisenhower Farms, owned by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, lists nine entries for the purebred Angus cattle competitions of the Chicago show which this year will celebrate its 65th anniversary as the country's foremost stock show. It is the close and climax of the stock show year which annually begins in early summer with the state and county fairs and winds up in Chicago at the International.

This year's exposition will feature competition for 39 breeds of purebred farm animals, and total entries are expected to reach the 10,000 mark. It will fill to capacity the 13-acre International Amphitheater at the Chicago Stockyards.

Championship rodeo competition is scheduled at all 14 performances of the International Horse Show during the exposition's nine-day run.

"SINCE WE'RE APART"

If I could only put in words the ache within my heart . . . then you would know just how I feel . . . since we have been apart . . . to say I'm like a ship adrift . . . upon a stormy sea . . . only skims the surface of . . . my weary misery . . . If mankind had no dreams to dream . . . or birds would cease to fly . . . these tragedies would not compare . . . to the tears I cry . . . for each one is a pinch of salt . . . upon an open sore . . . such is the pain of loneliness . . . that plagues me more and more . . . I hope these phrases bring to you . . . a minute portion of . . . the ache within my lonely heart . . . since we're apart, my love.

Vice President Glenn M. Haar presided over the evening session which followed a dinner hour with Upper Adams Business Manager David Houck as toastmaster in the school cafeteria. Introductions there included Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Keefe, C. P. Keefer, former county superintendent of schools; Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. HOLD ELECTION President Dean Asquith of the county school board presided in the afternoon. At the business session, Dale E. Ecker, Upper Adams, was elected as an auditor; John R. Pitzer, Upper Adams, and Robert W. Weaver, Gettysburg, were chosen delegates to the state convention, and Paul B. Lerew, Littlestown, and Stuart A. Lucabaugh, New Oxford, were named alternate delegates. D. Glenn Shupp, New Oxford elementary supervisor, reported on sessions of the state school boards' convention he attended recently at Pittsburgh.

The directors were told that technicians are "working day and night" to get UHF Station WITF at Hershey on the air by Monday morning. Asked about the probability of good reception here he said: "Channel 21 is a good test. If you can get that channel you probably will be able to get our Channel 33."

He said the state has promised that any areas that cannot get the WITF signal will be given service by the installation of translators. Some county school systems, including Gettysburg, are scheduled to take the Channel 33 programs while others are waiting to test reception.

AUDIENCE OF 166,000

He said Channel 33 can be added to regular TV sets but all new sets can receive UHF and VHF. Kaiser said 166,000 youngsters in nine counties including Adams "will enter the field of educational TV next week" and told of the new teaching opportunities and methods to be made available.

He pointed to in-service teacher training and adult education as additional benefits from the station that will be on the air from 8:50 to 11:30 a.m.; 1 to 3:30 p.m. and 7-10 p.m. five days a week. PLAN INQUEST INTO SHOOTING

The Franklin County coroner, Dr. John P. Manges, said Thursday an inquest into the fatal shooting Wednesday afternoon of Wilbur Henry Brown, 18, of Brownsville, Fayetteville R. 1, would be scheduled later. He issued a certificate of accidental shooting.

The youth, one of five in a hunting party which started out Wednesday morning in search of small game, was killed instantly when he was struck in the mouth by a blast of a 20-gauge shotgun shell. The coroner set the time of the death at 2:15 p.m.

According to investigators, the accident occurred when the shotgun, in the hands of a 17-year-old neighbor boy, identified as Roger Hinton, also of Brownsville, discharged at a distance of from four to five feet from Brown. Hinton reportedly told investigators he believed the gun was unloaded at the time the fatal shot was fired.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Brownsville Church of God, with the Rev. C. J. Covington officiating. Burial will be made in the Brownsville Cemetery.

Brown was born in Chambersburg, a son of the late Lester Calvin Brown, and of Mrs. Helen Brown, of Fayetteville R. 1. He was a member of the Brownsville Church of God, and was a laborer.

In addition to his mother and brother, Louis, he is survived by two other brothers, Lester I., a soldier in the U.S. Army, and David L., at home; four sisters, Mrs. Ronald E. Bradshaw, Fayetteville R. 1; Mrs. Herlis B. Waltz, Chambersburg R. 5; Mrs. Gregory Williams, of Gettysburg, and Cindy Rae, at home, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Ida Brown, Fayetteville R. 1.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of the Barbour Funeral Home.

BERGER LEADS IN RACE FOR SENATE POST

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader since 1959, apparently has the inside track to become president pro tempore of the Senate for the 1965 session. An informal survey indicates that Berger holds an edge over two other Republicans reportedly interested in the powerful office.

The others are Sens. George N. Wade, 71, Camp Hill insurance man who is senior Republican with service since 1941, and Robert D. Fleming, Aspinwall, a 14-year veteran who has been caucus chairman, chairman of the appropriations committee and head of the legislative watchdog committee.

BERGER FAVORITE

The consensus is that Berger, 61-year-old Coudersport attorney first elected in 1944, is the favorite because of his hard work as floor leader.

The Republican caucus will meet in mid-December to settle on their choices for top posts. The official elections will be on the first day of the 1965 session in January.

Wade is reported to have some support among the 27-member Republican delegation, but there are indications that the minority Democrats would throw their weight behind Berger in a showdown.

$9,000 EXTRA

The current office holder is Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Harrisburg Republican who was defeated in the April primary for re-nomination to the seat he held for 24 years.

START COUNT OF ABSENTEES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The counting of absentee ballots in the race for U.S. Senate started throughout Pennsylvania.

Sen. Hugh Scott, the Republican incumbent, holds a lead of about 45,000 over Democrat Genevieve Blatt in the unofficial statewide tally.

It was not known how many of the 130,000 absentee ballots mailed out were legally completed and returned.

Scott picked up a net gain of 1,916 votes in the official vote tabulation in Bucks County Thursday. He also gained 92 net votes in Lehigh County. Miss Blatt picked up about 300 in Philadelphia.

Harold F. Hellyer, chief clerk of the Bucks County Board of Elections, said the official count gave Miss Blatt 56,086 to Sen. Scott's 69,451.

Expect Council Okay On Jews Religious Freedom

By BENNETT M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council is expected to vote approval next week of revised declarations on the Jews and religious freedom, but the declarations probably will not be promulgated as council decrees before the next session, in 1965 or 1966.

Both documents were heatedly debated in the current council session, which ends Nov. 21. They are expected to have a major effect on the Roman Catholic Church's relations with other Christians and non-Christians.

REVISED DOCUMENTS

A council spokesman said Thursday the documents had been revised and that the declaration on the Jews had been strengthened to absolve Jews of any implication of deicide in Christ's Crucifixion.

"I think it is much stronger than even the first draft two years ago," said a member of the Vatican's Christian Unity Secretariat, which drafted both declarations.

As introduced, the declaration on Jews said all mankind, not Jews alone, shared blame for the Crucifixion. This phrase was omitted in a revision earlier this year which said: "All should be careful not to attribute to the Jew of our time what was committed during the Passion of Christ."

GIFT CRITICISM

Several cardinals, including three from the United States, assailed the omission in debate last September and urged that the original wording be restored. Middle East patriarchy opposed any declaration on the Jews because they feared a stand on the controversial issue would touch off anti-Catholic sentiment in Arab lands.

The religious freedom declaration holds that every man has the right to believe as his conscience dictates. Conservative prelates, mainly from Italy and Spain, opposed it as a danger to the Church.

While approval of the declarations is expected in the vote next week, a number of the prelates probably will approve them with reservations. These must be accompanied by written statements outlining suggested changes. Consideration of these by the Christian Unity Secretariat and possible further Oust Suit Against U.S. Defense Dept.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge has thrown out of court a lawsuit in which the National Education Association sought to force the Defense Department to pay higher salaries to the 7,000 teachers in its overseas schools.

U.S. Dist. Judge George L. Jart Jr. gave no reason for dismissing the suit but indicated the case might have better been taken to Congress.

The NEA said it is considering an appeal. The average teacher salary in overseas schools is about $4,720 compared with $6,680 in large U.S. cities, the NEA said.

Parlor bingo was enjoyed during the social hour. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert W. Gouker and Mrs. Scholl. The guess package, given by Mrs. Gouker, was received by Mrs. Mackley.

It was decided to hold the next meeting one week in advance of the usual time, on Wednesday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. Each member is asked to bring a $2 gift for exchange and a cold dish for refreshments. The hostesses will be Mrs. Will and Mrs. Norman R. Sentz.

TANEYTOWN GIRL IS HURT

A two-year-old Taneytown R. 1 girl was listed in fair condition at University Hospital, Baltimore, where she was taken following a two-car accident at Feeder and Trevanion Rds., near Taneytown, at about 9:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Tina Marie Klein, a passenger in a car driven by John Klein Jr., Taneytown R. 1, suffered a fractured skull when she was thrown from the car after it collided with an automobile operated by Robert William Martin, 20, Hampstead R. 2, Md.

Martin and a passenger in his car, David Ross Shower, 20, Hampstead R. 2, were treated at Carroll County General Hospital and released.

The Klein girl, taken to Carroll County General Hospital in the Taneytown Fire Co. ambulance, was rushed to University Hospital, Baltimore, when doctors suspected serious brain damage.

Police said the Martin car, traveling west on Feeder Rd., failed to stop at Trevanion Rd. and struck the Klein vehicle. Charges are pending. Trooper I-C H. L. Zepp Westminster Barracks, was the investigating officer.

HITLER VS. STALIN
Long Needed Book Reads Like Tolstoy
U.S. War Dept. Series Also Voluminous

AT LONG LAST a book has appeared in English that goes into detail concerning the bitter, barbaric struggle between the armies of Hitler and those of the Soviet Union. Also included are civilian conditions, personalities and foreign affairs.

It was land warfare, total warfare, at its deadly, ghastly, disagreeable worst. Except for the comparatively brief winter campaign in the Siegfried Line that included America's Battle for Hurtgen Forest and the Battle of the Bulge, our troops in Europe hardly experienced anything like the long protracted Russian campaigns.

A most casual perusal of this book ("Russia at War," by Alexander Werth, E. P. Dutton Co., $10) reveals why the Russians as a people and a nation are so certain that they and they alone won World War II. Trying to tell one of them that they could not possibly have held out without American arms, munitions and food through the Persian Gulf and via Murmansk is a waste of breath.

At a victory party in Czechoslovakia, 1945, I was bold enough to say as much to a Russian lieutenant general. His retort: "But to conquer Germany, how far along would you Americans be now had there been no Russian army there to receive those gifts?"

Though I stalled for time by taking a quick sip of vodka, I have not yet thought up satisfactory repartee to that proposition.

TO SAY that we have been utterly ignorant of the Russian front war would be untrue. Press reports at the time were sufficient to trace the progress and day to day changes as the Russian armies rolled forward, became stalemated at Leningrad and Moscow, but swept on southeasterly across the Volga River, enveloping Stalingrad, and pressing onward deep into the Caucasus Mountains.

From this business of merely sticking pins in a wall map one could readily envision some details of a struggle to the death by the slavish and teutonic titans.

The memoirs and campaign narratives of various German generals, such as of Heinz Guderian in "Panzer Leader," have further filled in many details from the German viewpoint. But, for reasons best known to themselves, Russian field marshals and generals have not indulged in personal memoirs.

Mr. Werth, along with many other interesting sidelights, does offer an occasional inkling as to their silence. He reports a gaudy reception in Moscow at war's end in which Stalin paused in his remarks to glare at his bemedaled warriors and remind them that the victory was essentially that of the Russian people.

Werth considered it a warning that they were not to get into the 'cult of personality' business for themselves. We now have it from Khrushchev that Stalin was pre-empting that activity unto himself.

Be that as it may, nothing has come out of Russia that approximates what the journalist and broadcaster, William L. Shirer, has done for the inside of Germany through the war years. There has been increasing need for an exhaustive Russian narrative.

To suggest that Mr. Werth's 1,100-page book is a hundred per cent accurate and fully definitive would be undue optimism. For instance, he cannot make up his mind as to whether the Germans or the Russians were responsible for the mass murder of the thousands of Polish army officer prisoners of war in Katyn forest. The historical evidence against the Russians.

Mr. Werth writes as a journalist who was there. Too often he bores the reader with too many quotes from Pravda and other Russian periodicals. But when he gets into things he saw and his own reactions, there are passages of literary power of a quality with Tolstoy's "War and Peace."

MEANWHILE, the exhaustive official historical series on the American army in World War II continues. In addition to the field operations a series of volumes under the general caption of "special studies" are now appearing.

Among them are "Chronology 1941-45" an indispensable, 600-page, ready reference work for tying together contemporary events, military, naval and diplomatic.

The most recent to come to my attention is a 900-page opus entitled "Civil Affairs Soldiers Become Governors." For the most part it is documentary. There are light passages here and there — such as a staff officer planning to decorate Eisenhower's headquarters with "liberated" masterpieces of French furniture and art.

The terminal documents, if such exist, pertinent to the at-the-time rumored American suppression of a military government edition of a school textbook (written by an Italian revisionist with considerably more than a pink tinge and approved by two distinguished American professors who could not read Italian) are not among those included in this volume.

These two official publications are available from the world's largest publisher: The Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Govt. Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Their price: $4.75 and $7.75 respectively.

PROBLEMS FOR P.A. CONGRESS GROUP MOUNT

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Acid mine drainage, mine safety, national parks, social security amendments and aid to depressed areas are but a few of the problems Pennsylvania members of Congress will face next year.

Congress will be asked to adopt bills affecting the state from Tocks Island on the Delaware River in the Northeast to the depressed soft coal regions of the Southwest.

President Johnson has already promised to press hard for congressional action next year on a $1 billion program to aid the economically depressed Appalachia region, including much of Pennsylvania.

WATER RESOURCES
The program drafted by the House Public Works Committee this year included a water resources study aimed partly at the acid mine drainage problem. It was included at the suggestion of Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

Some Pennsylvania members of Congress want to extend the Area Redevelopment Program while Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., is attempting to develop legislation to place all distressed area programs—Appalachia, Area Redevelopment and Accelerated Public Works for example—under one federal agency as part of the war on poverty. Clark also plans to introduce a bill to enlarge the Ft. Necessity historic site in Western Pennsylvania to include an area where the French and Indian War had its beginnings.

EXPECTED BILLS
This idea stems from a newly completed study, financed by ARA, recommending the creation of a vacation region in the Laurel Highlands of Somerset, Fayette and Westmoreland counties.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., has said he will introduce bills to increase social security benefits, to grant parents a $1,000 deduction for income tax purposes for each child they are putting through college and to provide tax relief for the handicapped.

Rep. John H. Dent, D-Pa., can be expected to reintroduce his bill to extend the Federal Mine Safety Law to operations with less than 15 employees. Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., plans to introduce again a bill to exempt the Old Order Amish from the Social Security system on religious grounds while Rep. John P. Saylor, R-Pa., is expected to reintroduce a bill to extend the Reclamation Act to the Eastern United States.

COMPUTERS TO AID STUDENTS IN HIGH SCHOOL

By RONALD L. SOBLE
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — For Northern California students next year it'll be reading, writing, arithmetic — and computers.

Some 300,000 high school and junior college students will have the opportunity to learn firsthand about the age of automation. And their teachers will be freed from much of the paperwork that now hinders classroom work.

DATA CENTER

Core of the program will be a data processing center that will open in July 1965 in the Sacramento Office of Education. A smaller pilot center was tested earlier in Richmond, Calif., schools.

"It's one of the most significant advances in the educational field in recent years," said Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction.

"Students will have an opportunity to gain an understanding of the potential and implications of computers in our complicated world," said Dr. Alvin Grossman, a data processing expert for the California Department of Education. "Also, the computing center will allow youngsters to learn about employment opportunities related to the machines."

EASES PAPERWORK

Rafferty said courses in programming and systems analysis and design will be an immediate outgrowth of the center's activities.

The electronic computer complex, developed by the Honeywell Corp., will serve another important function — it will ease the load of paperwork and reports that occupy the time of teachers, counselors and administrators.

No Blackface In Mummies' Parade

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mayor James H. Tate says "there is no reason to resume the ridiculous controversy over the wearing of blackface makeup" in the annual Mummies' Parade on New Year's Day.

Tate said in a statement Thursday that city policy is clear on the issue, there can be NO blackface in the parade. He said he does NOT think an ordinance is needed to prohibit it, however. He made statement in response to one by the Philadelphia Bar Association's community tensions panel recommending such an ordinance.

After a heated controversy last year, civil rights leaders obtained an injunction against the wearing of the blackface makeup in the colorful parade up Broad Street.

Policemen Held For Robbing Truck

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Four Bristol Township policemen have been held in $500 bail, charged with burglary and larceny in the alleged theft of $100 in cigarettes from a parked trailer six weeks ago.

Named in indictments returned by the Bucks County grand jury Thursday were Sgt. Bentley Chapin, 39, of Bristol; Edward Martin, also 39, of Levittown; John Landler, 22, of Levittown; and Richard Silbert, 32, of Croydon.

REBELS INVADE FLOOD-SWEPT VIET VILLAGES

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Communist Viet Cong guerrillas, capitalizing on the floods that have laid waste to 10 provinces, are reported moving openly from the mountains into the crippled valley villages of central Viet Nam.

Refugees from the flood told Vietnamese authorities they had been accosted by Viet Cong men and forced to tear up their identity papers. Widespread elimination of the papers would help the Communists to move with comparative freedom through the disrupted region.

Reliable sources said today the refugees disclosed the Viet Cong movements during interviews in government relief compounds in the coastal resort of Nhatrang and at Quinhon Thursday.

STUDENTS PROTEST

Despite the floods, which have drowned more than 5,000 persons and wrecked communications, students in Saigon, staged new antigovernment demonstrations today.

Shouting demands for the end of Premier Tran Van Huong's infant civilian government, several hundred students shoved through police ranks and assembled before the central market. About 1,000 persons gathered to shout "down with dictatorship, communism and neutralism."

The Saigon government can do little about Viet Cong activity in the flooded regions. Communications are disrupted and highways and railroad beds washed away in an era the size of New Jersey.

PSU OFFERS 2 SHORT COURSES

Two "short courses" at Pennsylvania State University have been announced by County Agent Thomas Piper.

The course is open to owners, managers, foremen and technical workers involved in professional pest control businesses.

The 1964 Farm Income Tax and Social Security short course will be held December 7 and 8 at Penn State. It is open to farmers and those who help farmers prepare returns. Tax instructors from the Internal Revenue Service will assist University personnel in presenting the program.

Application forms for the courses, which cost $10 for Pennsylvanians and $15 for non-Pennsylvanians, may be obtained at the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association Office in the Tupper Building just south of the courthouse on Baltimore St.

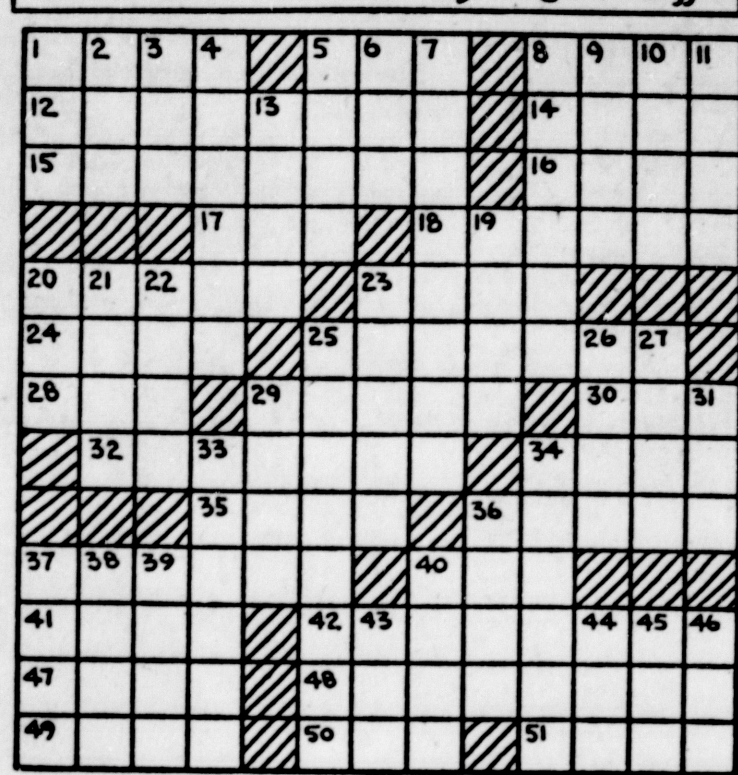

SHIP RESCUES PILOT ON RAFT

PATRICK AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — A ship early today rescued a civilian pilot who bobbed for nearly 24 hours in a raft after his single engine plane crashed in the South Atlantic Ocean, the Air Force reported.

Radio reports from the ship said the pilot, Lowell Thompson of Spokane, Wash., was in good condition after his ordeal. The vessel, the S.S. Robin Sherwood, was to take him to Ascension Island, site of a U.S. missile tracking station.

The pickup scene was about 140 miles west of Ascension. The Robin Sherwood, a racing base supply ship, reached the area Thursday night but was unable to spot Thompson because of darkness. It sighted

ORDER TREE HOUSE RAZED

LONDON (AP) — The Wandsworth and Woodford Town Council has ordered John Ludlow to dismantle a tree house built for his two children.

"It's ridiculous," said Ludlow. "I've been told I didn't get permission from the Town Council. Mind you the tree house is on my own property, in my own garden."

A spokesman for the council said Ludlow didn't get permission from the Planning Committee, as required by law, and neighbors had complained about the tree house.

Ludlow built the house for his son Richard, 10, and daughter, Brenda, 8.

"It's an eyesore and I complained to the council," said Joan Roberts, a neighbor.

"Anyway, it's particularly annoying when we're in our garden to have the Ludlow children running around the platform of

BLIND WOMAN SEEKS RULING TO ALLOW DOGS

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Not the blind, but the people who can see need help in coping with blindness, says a vivacious, blind woman who's gone to court to make her point: Where she goes, so goes her guide dog, Duchess.

"I've been thrown out of some of the best hotels, restaurants and museums in the world," Thelma Keitlen said today.

"I've been relegated to freight elevators.

"I've been passed countless times by empty cabs.

"I've even been accused of pretending I'm blind so that I can get Duchess into the passenger compartment of airliners with me.

"And I've been playing ball, explaining my rights, writing letters later, but now I find this most unsatisfactory."

Her argument: State law forbids "discrimination against sightless persons accompanied by a dog guide" that would exclude them from inns, common carriers, theaters, restaurants and hotels.

She alleges that on Oct. 16 she was refused service at a restaurant when she entered with her dog. The owners said it was a misunderstanding with his hostess. Health laws ban dogs from eating places, except guide dogs. The case was postponed.

"I'm sorry to have to make an example," Mrs. Keitlen said. "But maybe if the word gets around, then people will learn what my rights are."

"Nearly every time I go to a new place that doesn't know me, I go through the same humiliation," she said. "Twenty-five per cent of a blind person's problem is adjusting and 75 per cent is getting the public to adjust."

She lost her sight nine years ago but still skis, swims, rides horseback, plays golf, climbs mountains and travels.

Steelworkers Are Safer At Home

OKAY MEMORIAL FOR KENNEDY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara plans to reveal Monday the design he has approved for a permanent memorial grave at Arlington National Cemetery for the late President John F. Kennedy.

McNamara announced Thursday he had approved the design by architect John E. Warneke. He said it has also been approved by Kennedy's widow, the Kennedy family, government authorities concerned with the design, the Commission of Fine Arts and the chairman of the National Capital Planning Commission.

Kennedy's grave on a slope at Arlington has been without a permanent marker since his burial last Nov. 25. The Army, which runs the cemetery, put a wooden fence and temporary walkways around the grave and its eternal flame.

So far millions have visited Kennedy's grave.

COEDS BALK AT DATES PICKED BY MACHINES

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Coeds at the University of Cincinnati have balked at the idea of having a machine select their partners for a weekend dance.

"I think I'm a better judge of character than any old machine," was a typical comment given by Frances Dick, Cincinnati freshman. "And besides who is going to put the right answers on that questionnaire."

"I have a date Saturday night — and I picked him out myself!" she exclaimed.

GIRLS DIDN'T SIGN
Plans were to have students fill out a questionnaire, giving all the pertinent detail about themselves and their ideal partner.

The information was to have been fed into a computer to match "ideal" couples for an "IBM" dance Saturday night in the Student Union.

"But," sighed Anthony Scapicco, Student Union program director, "the girls didn't sign up for the program."

At deadline earlier this week, the dance list was a little top heavy: 60 boys had agreed to let the computer serve as a matchmaker, but only 10 coeds were willing to do so.

"MAY TELL A LIE"
Since the earlier deadline, however, Scapicco said more girls have shown an interest — but it's too late.

The delicate computer will not have time now to get ready for such a chore, said C. F. Evert, director of the UC computer center.

But all is not lost, Evert added.

The matchmaking will be turned over to a card-sorter, a less than electronic device which will trudge through the cards, picking out some common characteristics of the dance partners, Evert said.

"With the computer, we could have matched up all 15 characteristics listed on the questionnaire," he said.

A male student, James Heithens, also of Cincinnati, said he would rather use his own judgment in picking a date. "After all, some women may tell a little lie on the questionnaire," he said.

62 TEEN-AGE CANDIDATES MEET AGGIES

By PEGGY SIMPSON

DALLAS (AP) — Fifty-two talented Miss Teen-Age America candidates met 60 singing Texas Aggies Thursday night for a "lucky Friday the 13th" party.

They got rabbit-foot charms, plenty of wood to knock on, and wells to throw wishes down. Prizes for locating lucky pennies were troll dolls, themselves considered a good luck figure.

On this Friday the 13th, one girl will be propelled into the spotlight for a year as Miss Teen-Age America. 1965, with a $10,000-college scholarship and many prizes.

10 SEMIFINALISTS

The 10 semifinalists named Thursday were Gayle Brackett, 16, Atlanta, Ga.; Carolyn Maginnis, 17, Baltimore, Md.; Nancy Collins, 14, Dallas; Andrea Ayers, 16, Greenville, S.C.; Lana Karen Lack, 17, Memphis, Tenn.; Sherrel Stephens, 17, Oklahoma City; Kathleen Frances Ross, 17, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Linda Licciardi, 17, San Francisco; Diana Lee Clouse, 17, Stockton, Calif., and Debra Diethelm, 15, Toledo, Ohio.

The singing cadets from Texas A&M University surprised the candidates Wednesday night with a serenade outside the pajama party given by the outgoing teen queen, Jeanie Zavrel of Falls Church, Va.

REAL MIXER

But as Aggie James Riggs put it, the serenade was just a "formal howdy-do; Thursday night was a real mixer."

A rock 'n' roll band played for dancing between bites of barbecue. Some couples wandered to the edge of the observation deck, 41 stories above the glittering lights of Dallas. And the girls relived the week-long pageant by seeing movies of themselves.

Most Aggies were frankly impressed with the candidates. Riggs said, "They're real nice girls; very poised and, of course, nervous. They're friendly and having a good time, but are tired."

Start Paying Off Jenny Lind Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Capital University has begun payment on a 113-year-old debt to Jenny Lind, the famed "Swedish Nightingale" contralto of the 19th Century.

When she came to Columbus for two concerts in November, 1851, William Reynolds, Capital's first president, persuaded her to contribute $1,500 for endowment of a Scandinavian theological professorship. Interest was to be for the benefit of needy Scandinavian students.

Board minutes indicate that $1,300 was loaned to the Seminary, which decided to appropriate the loan toward payment of $1,600 advanced to the president's salary. Now, at this late date, Capital officials feel a once-every-four-years scholarship to an entering woman vocal student would be the best way to set things straight.
